3. Students should not absent themselves from classes, practical, other academic and clinical activities and examinations without the previous permission of the Principal. Such absence without leave may lead to loss of a term.
4. Students are not permitted to attend classes other than their own without the special permission of teacher concerned.
5. Smoking and drinking of liquor is strictly prohibited in all parts of the hospital campus and hostel.
6. PG students are expected to volunteer themselves for Drug Proving. They should do so under the supervision of senior faculty members.
7. Students will be assigned to function as guide in the Clinical/SCR Meetings and Journal Clubs under the supervision of senior faculty members.
8. Students shall train themselves academically to be able to deliver lectures under the supervision of departmental heads.
9. It is imperative for a PG student to take active part in Medical camps organized on holidays/ Research projects / community health college magazine and Annual Homoeopathic conference etc.
10. Students can be called any time of the day and night to attend cases, which require immediate medical care.
11. Students of the Institute are advised not to get married or undergo pregnancy during the course of study in the College. No special concessions or leaves will be granted to such student other than what is due to them.
12. Students are expected to behave with dignity and decorum and in conformity with the discipline of the Institution.
13. Students are required to dress decently and present themselves neat and tidy avoiding exaggerated fashions.
14. Students will refrain from disfiguring walls and furniture misbehavior unbecoming of members of the medical profession.
15. Any breach of discipline shall be suitably dealt with. Serious lapses of discipline and character shall render the student's name liable to be struck off the roll of the college. If, in the opinion of the Principal, a student is not likely to benefit by his continuing in the college or if his continuance is considered to be detrimental to the best interest of the Institutions, the Management may order such a student to leave the College. No fees paid by the students will be refunded. The Management's decision in this regard shall be final.
16. Strict adherence to the internet utilization policy is binding to all students. Any deviation will be viewed seriously and strict action taken.

18. In all matters, whether covered or not in the existing rules, the decision of the Management shall be final

19. The Management reserves the rights of making any addition to or omission from or alteration in the above rules and regulation including fee structure without prior of notice.

ARNING ON RAGGING AND AFFIDAVIT -

Hon'ble Supreme Court has delivered a judgment on 8.5.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009 following which the University Grants Commission has notified "UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions 2009" on 17/6/2009 which are enforced. Ragging being a serious issue as such there is a need to change the mind set of students and parents for which it is imperative on the part of all of us to eradicate this evil completely. Prevention of ragging needs to emerge as a social awareness of programme in the Colleges for which periodically counselling of students and their parents is required. Therefore, it is requested to you to strictly follow the Anti Ragging Regulations made by UGC, and also public notices issued by UGC, concerned University and concerned State Govt. in the matter, if any need to be followed. Any case of Ragging must be promptly looked into as per said Regulations of UGC and appropriate action be taken against the erring persons with a report to UGC as well as to this Council. (the said regulation is put up on www.antiragging.in) we are requesting you to go through the website and fill the online information of parents and students and take printout of affidavit and submit to the college.
